

Taste the World in Clayton County, GA: A Foodie Itinerary

Morning — Morrow & Jonesboro

Breakfast at Eggs Up Grill (Morrow)

Start your day with a hearty Southern breakfast, fueling up on omelets, waffles, and coffee before exploring.

Clayton County Visitors Center (Jonesboro)

After breakfast, stop by the Clayton County GA Visitors Center to pick up maps, get insider dining tips, and learn about the county's international food scene, your ideal starting point before diving into global flavors.

Lunch — Forest Park

Khmer Bowl — Forest Park

South Georgia's only Cambodian restaurant, serving must-try Cambodian bowls and other favorites, offering fresh, aromatic dishes built around bold herbs, crisp vegetables, and comforting Southeast Asian flavors.

Clayton County Mural Trail

After lunch, explore the Forest Park murals, where vibrant public art celebrates Clayton County's people, stories, and cultural heritage.

Dinner — Riverdale

Fusion House Restaurant — Riverdale

Enjoy bold international Asian flavors, from vibrant salads to steaming pho and wok-tossed fried rice for a satisfying stop on your global food journey.

Hindu Temple of Atlanta

Visit the Hindu Temple of Atlanta to experience its peaceful atmosphere and traditional South Indian architecture.

After a day of global flavors, unwind at one of Clayton County's welcoming hotels near dining, shopping, and attractions.

Unlock Your Guide to Foodie Fun at SeeClaytonCountyGA.com